Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 4, 2019, Antero Midstream Partners LP (“Antero Midstream”) and Antero Midstream GP LP (“AMGP”) received from American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC the preliminary results of the elections made by holders of Antero Midstream’s common units other than Antero Resources Corporation (“Antero Resources”) regarding their preference as to the form of consideration to be received in connection with the previously announced simplification transaction between AMGP, Antero Midstream and certain of their affiliates.

As previously disclosed, each holder of Antero Midstream’s common units other than Antero Resources (collectively, the “AM public unitholders”) will be entitled to receive, at its election and subject to proration, in exchange for each common unit held, one of the following:

- $3.415 in cash and 1.6350 shares of common stock of Antero Midstream Corporation (“New AM”), the entity into which AMGP will convert at the closing of the previously announced simplification transaction (the “Public Mixed Consideration”);
- 1.6350 shares of New AM common stock plus an additional number of shares of New AM common stock equal to the quotient of (A) $3.415 and (B) the average volume-weighted average AMGP trading price for the 20 trading days ended March 4, 2019 (the “Public Stock Consideration”); or
- $3.415 in cash plus an additional amount of cash equal to the product of (A) 1.6350 and (B) the average volume-weighted average AMGP trading price for the 20 trading days ended March 4, 2019 (the “Public Cash Consideration”).

There are currently 88,459,812 Antero Midstream common units held by AM public unitholders (the “eligible units”). Based on available information as of the election deadline on March 4, 2019, the preliminary consideration election results are as follows for AM public unitholders (excluding common units owned by Antero Resources):

- AM public unitholders holding approximately 7.9% of the eligible units elected to receive Public Mixed Consideration
- AM public unitholders holding approximately 43.2% of the eligible units elected to receive Public Stock Consideration
- AM public unitholders holding approximately 22.0% of the eligible units elected to receive Public Cash Consideration.
- AM public unitholders holding approximately 26.9% of the eligible units failed to make a valid election prior to the election deadline and, therefore, are deemed to have elected to receive Public Mixed Consideration.

Under the terms of the Simplification Agreement, dated as of October 9, 2018, by and between AMGP, Antero Midstream and certain of their affiliates (the “Simplification Agreement”), to the extent the amount of cash that AM public unitholders would have received had all AM public unitholders elected to receive the Public Mixed Consideration exceeded the amount of cash they actually elected to receive (i) Antero Resources could elect to increase the amount of cash it would receive as consideration and (ii) the number of shares of New AM common stock it will receive would be reduced accordingly. Based on the preliminary results described above, there will be no excess available cash. As such, Antero Resources will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each unit that Antero Resources holds, 1.6023 shares of New AM common stock and $3.00 in cash (or approximately $297 million in aggregate cash consideration).

After the final results of the consideration election process are determined, the final allocation of consideration, including any necessary proration, will be made in accordance with the terms of the Simplification Agreement. The final allocation is currently expected to occur on or about March 12, 2019.
